

Peking University School of Transnational Law
International Exchange Application for STL Students

* Please send your application by e-mail to exchange@stl.pku.edu.cn. When attaching documents in your e-mail, please do not “zip” nor send your files in .rar format nor otherwise compress your attachments into one file.

Personal Information

In the subject line of your e-mail, include your full name in Pinyin and your current class year (3L or 4L).

Certification of Understanding and Compliance with STL Exchange Program Policies and Rules

In the main body of your e-mail, type the following statement.

I have read and hereby agree to comply with STL's General Guidelines for Study Abroad.

Exchange Program Preferences

In the main body of your e-mail, indicate your exchange program preferences. Students may apply for more than one semester exchange program. If you do so, please indicate your rank order of preference for the programs applied for (write 1 by your first preference, 2 for your second preference, and 3 for your third preference). Rank no more than three programs and only rank programs which you are certain you would attend if nominated. Also indicate your semester preference for each ranked program.

* Please include your General Statement of Purpose and Program-Specific Statements of Interest as one single attachment.

General Statement of Purpose

Please describe why you wish to study abroad, your educational objectives, professional goals, any areas of special interest, any relevant language skills, and previous international experience, if any. Limit your statement to 400 words or less.

Program-Specific Statements of Interest

Please also describe why you are specifically interested in each of the exchange programs you have applied for above. Limit your statement for each exchange program to 250 words or less. Use a separate section for each exchange program. For example, if you apply for 3 exchange programs above, write 3 separate program-specific Statements of Interest.

Resume and Transcript

Please submit a current resume. You are not required to submit a transcript in your e-mail – instead, the Office of International Programs will obtain a copy of your transcript directly from the Office of Academic Affairs.
